PRAM strengthening partnerships through participatory science | CIET building community voices into planning | McGill

Monthly Newsletter

The Participatory Research Newsletter

This monthly newsletter aims to highlight the participatory research initiatives emerging from Participatory Research @ McGill (PRAM), and Community Information, Empowerment and Transparency (CIET), as well as share new opportunities for projects, courses, funding, and more!

Note, the PRAM newsletter is offered in the following languages:

Français | Español

A Month in Review

An ever busy team, below are a few updates from the PRAM/CIET network.

Knowledge Dissemination

Presentations

On November 25, PRAM team member, Dr Iván Sarmiento, met with the Colombian Ministry of Health's Human Resources Unit for Health. The presentation introduced a series of tools for the promotion of participatory research and intercultural dialogue in health research. Participants from the Ministry of Health discussed the application of these tools in their current processes of consultation with stakeholders.

Additionally, on 29 November, PRAM, in collaboration with the Centro de Estudios Médicos Interculturales and La Universidad del Rosario, participated in the IV International Seminar on Public Health at the National University of San Marcos, Peru. The main theme of the presentation was the protection of medicinal plants and the role of traditional medicine in primary health care.

GUIDE TO
FUZZY COGNITIVE MAPPING

Tools and references to
Fuzzy Cognitive Mapping (FCM)

Website Launch

We are proud to announce the launch of a long-term initiative to develop a site dedicated to sharing resources about fuzzy cognitive mapping (FCM)!

This site is an ever evolving resource, dedicated to supporting researchers, community workers, and others who seek to strengthen community voices in evidence-based planning. The site is also available in Spanish.

Visit our site here!

Job Postings

Research Assistant +

Dr Loubna Belaid is seeking a research assistant to help conduct a scoping review on practical guides for reporting participatory research in health. For further inquiries, please contact Dr Belaid at loubna.belaid@enap.ca

Full Job Posting

Call for Indigenous Scholars +

Algoma University is inviting applications from Indigenous Scholars for Part-Time Contract Faculty (PTCF) positions to teach courses held at the Brampton campus,

Sault St. Marie campus, and Virtually Online. Courses begin in the Winter 2023 semester.

Full Job Posting

Tenture-track Faculty Position - Indigenous Histories in Canada +

Algoma University is inviting applications for a tenure-track faculty position in Indigenous Histories in Canada at the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in the Department of English and History, at its Sault Ste. Marie campus, commencing on July 1st, 2023, or as negotiated. They are seeking candidates with expertise in teaching and research of the histories of residential schools, Indigenous-settler relations, treaties and treaty-making, resource and land use, and/or health and healthcare.

Full Job Posting

We wanted to take a moment to thank you for being part of the PRAM | CIET network. We have had a wonderful year, which you are welcome to review here, and look forward to what 2023 brings!

We will be back in January with more updates from the PRAM | CIET team. Wishing you all the very best this holiday season!

Latest Publications

Highlighted below are some of the most recent publications from the industrious PRAM team:

Shifting paradigm from biomedical to decolonised methods in Inuit public health research in Canada: a scoping review

Authors: Loubna Belaid, Richard Budgell, Caroline Sauvé & Neil Andersson

Visit our website for more publications from the PRAM team

Don't miss a newsletter! Subscribe here

PRAM | CIET

Participatory Research @ McGill

Community Information, Empowerment and Transparency

You received this email because you signed up to learn more about ongoing participatory research initiatives.

Unsubscribe

SENT BY mailerlite